California Electronic Communications Act (CALECPA) & Advanced Search Warrant Topics

Date: April 25, 2019

Time: 0800-1700

“The 2016 California Electronic Communications Privacy Act (SB 178) Requires Search Warrant For Computer, Server, Cell Phone and Other Electronic Device Searches”

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This eight-hour course will focus on the advanced intricacies of Search Warrants and California's Electronic Communications Privacy Act (CALECPA), which went into effect in 2016. Each attendee will obtain the knowledge to prepare and execute the various types of search and arrest warrants from establishing probable cause to understanding the administrative and associated legal issues and requirements. The CEPCA (SB 178) established significant changes in the law and requires a Search Warrant to access electronic information and devices, including information from those on Fourth Amendment Waivers (Parole & Supervision). Each attendee will receive a Flash Drive with a SW Manual and Templates.
